

Threshold knowledge	Threshold skill
To understand why Pentecost is the birthday of the Church To know the meaning of martyrdom. All will be able to recount where Peter and Paul travelled to and what happened in some of the places To know who Constantine was	Using key words appropriately and confidently. Beginning to use alternative views in discussion answers, ad this will be present in class and homework tasks. some help with technical language and use of 3-4 terms: Acts/Nicene creed Students consider the importance of being truthful and the impact this can sometimes have. Writing frame will be needed for essay style questions.
To know the meaning and purpose of Pentecost To be explore the struggles of the early church To identify why there would have been different responses to 'Saul's' conversion among the Christian community To be able to make a link between the travels of Peter and Paul and the creation of the early Church To know what Constantine did to help Christians in the Roman Empire	Good detail in their understanding and to know the specialist language being used and be able to use it themselves Students will identify the meaning of martyrdom and consider the martyrdom of the apostles Discussion and use of increasing technical language: Acts/Nicene creed
To be secure in how Pentecost is significant in our lives today They will To examine the struggles of the early church and relate to Christians facing persecution today To explain how St Paul's teachings can be applied to the question of how to live the Christian life today To be able to demonstrate religious views on how we should aim to live the Christian life today To understand why Constantine became a Christian, with 2 or more viewpoints with evidence	Beginning to include 2 or more viewpoints, described and explained, with evidence: e.g. 'The blood of the martyrs is the seed of the Church' – to discuss and write an answer to this question. Confident in use of the Bible and how to examine other sources of authority: e.g. Acts 7:54-60 stoning of Stephen and Nicene creed
To be secure in how Pentecost is significant in our lives today: linking to sacramental significance and movements in the Church today: charismatic worship To link the struggles of the early church to challenges faced by Christians today: modern day discipleship and persecution. To explain and evaluate how St Paul's teachings can be applied to the question of how to live the Christian life today To be able to evaluate religious views on how we should aim to live the Christian life today To be able to empathise with the early Christians and explain the importance of Constantine	Use of a range of sources as evidence: biblical text, practices today, ritual and significance of worship. Convincing conclusions from essay and viewpoint pieces: 'The blood of the martyrs is the seed of the Church' – to discuss and write an answer to this question – writing frame will be needed. Importance and evaluation of the Nicene Creed
Blue sky knowledge	Blue sky skills