

Threshold knowledge	Threshold skill
To know what being made in God's image means To demonstrate understanding that a key purpose of our lives is to overcome sin by repairing broken relationships. To understand the importance of the Sacrament of Reconciliation To know God became man to save us from original sin To identify the source of the Sacrament of the Sick in Scripture To understand and relate the meaning of the word 'Conscience' To study people who acted according to their conscience To reflect on what we can learn from their example	Using key words appropriately and well. Beginning to use alternative views in discussion answers, ad this will be present in class and homework tasks. some help with technical language and use of 3-4 terms: Sacramental life: reconciliation and the sick. Students consider the importance of conscience and refer to specific examples in some detail. Writing frame will be needed: assessment task.
To reflect on how the belief we are made in God's image affects our relationships with others: prodigal son parable exploration To explore meanings contained in the story of the Prodigal Son To explain the importance of the Sacrament of Reconciliation To identify and explain the source of the Sacrament of the Sick in Scripture To know how to educate our conscience and that a conscience must always be followed: with examples To study and explain about people who acted according to their conscience To reflect on what we can learn from their example	Good detail in their understanding and to know the specialist language being used and be able to use it themselves Students will identify the meaning the sacraments studied and the role of conscience in the examples studied, to developing effect. Discussion and scripture/ evidence.
To understand why Christians believe that sin is often the cause of relationship breakdowns. To understand the viewpoints surrounding the importance of the Sacrament of Reconciliation To identify the source of the Sacrament of the Sick in Scripture and use source material well To identify the importance of conscience and reach a personal conclusion about the importance of conscience in a Christian's life	2 or more viewpoints and why Christians have different attitudes, described and explained, with evidence: conscience case studies: in the assessment: personal conclusion
To evaluate our responses to events in our lives in the light of the parable of the Prodigal Son To evaluate the importance of the Sacrament of Reconciliation in a Catholic's life To explain the meaning of these scripture passages regarding the Sacrament of the Sick for Christians today. To make informed judgements of people who acted according to their conscience, answering the assessment task in a highly reasoned manner To analyse what we can learn from their example	Use of a range of sources as evidence conscience case studies and ability to make judgements as to rank of importance of material studied. Importance and evaluation of the sacraments studied and conscience assessment task case studies.
Blue sky knowledge	Blue sky skills

