

Threshold knowledge	Threshold skill
To understand the origins of Hinduism To know what Hindus believe about God through the concept of the Trimurti and avatars To know the role of God in the Hindu creation account To know key Hindu special occasions and rites of passage To know the features of sacred spaces and worship in Hinduism	Using key words appropriately and well. Beginning to use alternative views in discussion answers, ad this will be present in class and homework tasks. some help with technical language and use of 3-4 terms: Hindusim/Trimurti/puja Students consider the importance of creation, life and death and worship as themes in Hinduism.
To understand and explain the origins of Hinduism To explain what Hindus believe about God through the concept of the Trimurti To understand how Hindus believe creation should be treated To discuss if Hinduism is a faith of one God or many To explain key Hindu special occasions and rites of passage To be able to explain Hindu beliefs in life after death To consider the purpose of sacred spaces	Good detail in their understanding and to know the specialist language being used and be able to use it themselves Students will identify the meaning and importance of creation/worship/ritual/beliefs Discussion and scripture/ evidence.
To consider how we know the truth with the consideration of perspective about the origins of Hinduism To compare what Hindus believe about God through the concept of the Trimurti and life after death to our own understanding To compare how Hindus believe creation should be treated with our own knowledge of the creation accounts in Judaism and Christianity	2 or more viewpoints and why Hindus have different attitudes, described and explained, with evidence and to include a personal conclusion
To evaluate how we know the truth with the consideration of perspective about the origins of Hinduism To evaluate what Hindus believe about God through the concept of the Trimurti and our own understanding of Trinity To evaluate the Hindu attitudes towards the environment and life after death To evaluate how we express our beliefs in rituals and sacred spaces.	Use of a range of sources as evidence Hinduism knowledge and ability to make judgements as to rank of importance of material studied. Importance and evaluation of the aspects of faith studied, making links with their own perspectives.
Blue sky knowledge	Blue sky skill