

Y9 TERM 2: TRUTH

Threshold knowledge To know and understand how to recognise the reliability of sources of truth To know and understand how Tradition is a source of Revelation in Catholic theology To know and understand the nature and role of the Magisterium To understand some of the reasons why Christians believe in God. To know and retell examples of theories for God's existence	Threshold skill Using multiple key words accurately & appropriately. Engaging with alternative views in discussion answers, & identifying how sources influences beliefs. To describe key ideas in relation to belief in God.
To assess the importance of being able to identify truth To appreciate the Catholic understanding of Scripture as an inspired collection of writings and a source of Revelation To explain how Tradition is a source of Revelation in Catholic theology To explain the nature and role of the Magisterium To investigate evidence for and against God's existence. To compare Aquinas' arguments from cause and motion. To be able to explain some of the theories for God's existence	Students will display developing exploration of meaning and significance of topics for believers. Discussion and scripture/ evidence. Further developing evaluative skill(s). Deepening understanding the reasons for catholic and non-Catholic beliefs about sources of truth. Justifying, supporting and using religious and non-religious views/beliefs, using sources as evidence. To clearly demonstrate developing knowledge of central ideas within the topic.
Explore the types of writing in Scripture found in the Old and New Testaments To identify how tradition as a source of revelation links to apostolic succession To evaluate evidence for God's existence is conclusive and what sort of evidence we need. To evaluate and compare models for God's existence and express a preference To be confident in the use and explanation of the theories for God's existence	A comprehensive range of different viewpoints regarding the topic. Reasons why people have different attitudes/ description and explanation showing maturity, with evidence, including a personal conclusion. Make thoughtful connections between sources of authority and belief and identify how arguemnts/sources influences belief. To identify key similarities and differences within and between religions and understand/elaborate on reasons for this.
Explore and place the types of writing in Scripture found in the Old and New Testaments To assess whether a Catholic should always follow the Magisterium To evaluate the role of Apostolic Succession and Apostolic Tradition how tradition as a source of revelation links to apostolic succession To evaluate and compare models for God's existence and argue their significance To be confident in the use and explanation of the theories for God's existence	To compare and contrast religious and non-religious ideas in relation to this topic using evidence to support the different positions. To produce well-informed and well-reasoned insights into own and others' beliefs on the compatibility belief in God, sources of truth for Catholics (tradition, scripture and Magisterium). To demonstrate fair and reasonable evaluative skill, having made judgments on the range of the major ideas and beliefs we have covered in this topic. To synthesise a range of evidence to justify my own and others ideas in relation to this topic, showing high level thinking and engagement.
Blue sky knowledge	Blue sky skill