Dear Parent/Guardian

GCSE English Literature Class and Revision Resources

As you are probably aware, Year 10 students are now being assessed in English Literature through terminal exams. Therefore, the importance of revision to all Year 10 students is paramount. To this end, the school would like to give you a second opportunity to purchase the following textbooks and GCP resources, which are available at a discounted price.

The ability of students to revise independently is crucial, and these tailor-made resources will help the students with all the crucial elements of their exams. They contain key sections, close analysis, focus on important themes, possible questions and exemplar answers. CGP have a history of providing excellent material, and have been used by the department in the past.

It is also very helpful for the students to have the same issues/copies of the main texts, as this will help them in class. The other advantage of having the GCSE texts is that students can read them over the summer to familiarise themselves with the plot and storyline in preparation for study.

If you would like to purchase any or all of the books offered below, please tick the boxes of the texts you wish to buy, and send a cheque made payable to 'St Augustine's Catholic College' either on or before Monday 1st October. We regret that we will be unable to take orders after this date.

If you have any questions, please contact the Head of English, Mr J Kenrick.

Yours sincerely

David Forster
