Dear Parent/Guardian

History Revision Sessions

As part of your child's revision for GCSE History, the History department will be holding two revision sessions on Saturday 1st June 2019. These two sessions will talk students through how to master answering the question types in Paper 1 (Germany 1890-1945; Conflict and Tension 1945-72) and Paper 2 (Power and the People; Elizabeth 1568-1603). Their exams are on the 3rd and 6th June respectively.

It is not compulsory to attend, however previous cohorts have given positive feedback on how useful they found the revision sessions, and attendance has often correlated with performance in the exams.

Date of revision sessions: Saturday 1st June 2019

Location: St Augustine's Catholic College, main hall

Time: 9am – 1.30pm.

Students will have time for a lunch break between the two sessions, but will need to stay on site, therefore please bring a packed lunch and water bottle.

If your son/daughter would like to attend, please complete the slip below and return to the History office by 20th May 2019.

Yours sincerely

David Forster
