Programme ideas: Volunteering section

When completing each section of your DofE, you should develop a programme which is specific and relevant to you. This sheet gives you a list of programme ideas that you could do or you could use it as a starting point to create a Volunteering section programme of your own.

You can find more information at DofE.org/volunteering and there is a range of exciting opportunities to help you complete this section at DofE.org/finder.

It's your choice...

Volunteering gives you the chance to make a difference to people's lives and use your skills and experience to help your local community. You can use this opportunity to become involved in a project or with an organisation that you care about.

Help with planning

You can use the programme planner on the website to work with your Leader to plan and agree your activity before you start.

Before you begin, it is important to check that your volunteering meets the criteria for businesses and family members (see DofE.org/volunteering for the requirements).

Programme ideas: Expedition section

When completing each section of your DofE, you should develop a programme which is specific and relevant to you. This sheet gives you a list of ideas that you could do or you could use it as a starting point to create an Expedition of your own. Remember, it's always your adventure.

You can find more information at DofE.org/expedition and there is a range of exciting opportunities to help you complete this section at DofE.org/finder.

It's your choice...

Going on an expedition gives you the chance to have an adventure, work as a team, and act on your own initiative. The expedition can be as far away or as close to home as you want it to be, and there are hundreds of ways you can go about it.

Help with planning

You can use the handy programme planner on the website to work with your Leader to plan your activity. If you have additional needs talk to your leader about the support and variations that could help you.

On foot

- Studying how insect life differs from woodland to open fields.
- Exploring teamwork by nominating a different leader each day.
- Searching for forms of fungi, recording and sketching them.
- Planning a route and create a signpost selfie guide.
- Considering the impact of tourism on the flora and fauna of the area you are in.
- Drawing all the different star constellations you can see.
- Creating a photo guide to the Countryside Code.

By bicycle

- Using a cycle system to undertake a research project on the provisions and quality of cycle paths.
- Producing a nature guide of your route for future visitors.
- Investigating features of the Thames using the Thames cycle path.
- Plan a cycle of remembrance which visits war memorials to understand the scale of the losses.

- Creating a video diary of the expedition, recording each team member's experiences.
- Following part of the Gerald of Wales route of 1188 through Pembrokeshire.

By boat

- Sailing the Norfolk Broads to explore modern and ancient uses of the area.
- Exploring different team roles needed on a boat and giving everyone an opportunity to do a new one.
- Rowing along a large river recording the types of boats and their uses.
- Planning a significant sea journey under sail to record the effects of coastal erosion.
- Using simple mapping techniques to produce a map of an estuary on the expedition, comparing it with a real map when you return.

By canoe or kayak

- Recording the wildlife found on a large inlet or loch.
- Taking a series of photos to come up with a guide to a section of canal systems.

- Making a study of the locks and lochs on the Caledonian Canal.
- Investigating samples of the river bed en route and comparing them with each other.
- Carrying out a canoe trip and create a storyboard (photo/painted/drawn) of your expedition.
- Choosing several points along a river and measure speed of flow, width and depth and comparing the differences along their route, trying to explain why this may be.

By wheelchair

- Creating an expedition music play list that reflects the team's experiences.
- Following a disused railway track noting the current use of previous railway buildings.
- Planning and doing a challenging route in the Peak District, making a video diary.
- Preparing a users' guide of a country park or National Trust estate, explaining how it can be used, e.g. fishing, picnicking, conservation.

- Planning a route in a forest to take a series of landscape photographs to use in a calendar.
- Producing an illustrated guide to a stretch of canal. Research the history and then travel along the towpath using the expedition to gather photographs and sketches to illustrate the guide.

On horseback

- Exploring bridle paths and create an A-Z of the outdoors from the trip.
- Planning an expedition with sea views, taking photos along the way so that you can paint a picture of your favourite scene when you return.
- Creating a series of team games to play whilst on expedition.
- Going on an expedition through woodland, noting the different types and ages of trees you see.
- Going on a horseriding expedition and writing a poem on your return to describe your experiences.
